

How to Make an Extension Payment for Individual Income Tax

To avoid interest and delinquent payment penalties, individual taxpayers must remit their taxes due by the May 15 due date. LDR is offering the following ways to make a payment by May 15:

1. Mail a check with Form R-2868V, Individual Income Tax 2022 Automatic Extension Payment Voucher, to the department
2. Make a payment electronically through LaTAP
 - a. If you have a LaTAP account, you can make an extension payment through your account
3. Make a payment electronically through Louisiana File Online
 - a. You can make an extension payment through your account by logging in, selecting the year 2022, then selecting “Make a payment using a bank account”
 - i. You must select “payment with extension” as your payment type
 - b. If you do not have an account, you can register for one and receive immediate access to your account
 - i. After registering, follow the instructions for making a payment above
4. Make a payment electronically through participating third-party software
5. Pay by debit or credit card through ACI Payments, Inc
 - a. No login is required, but a fee is charged to make the payment
 - b. When using this option, you must select extension payment as the “Individual Income Tax Payment Type”

How to Make an Extension Payment for Corporation Income & Franchise Tax, Partnership Income Tax, and Fiduciary Income Tax.

To avoid interest and delinquent payment penalties, taxpayers must remit their taxes by the due date. The chart below lists the options available to make an extension payment.

Extension Payment Options:	Corporation Income & Franchise Tax	Partnership Income Tax	Fiduciary Income Tax
Mail in a check	You can mail a check with Form CIFT-620EXT-V . This voucher can be printed through the Online Payment Voucher application .	You can mail a check with Form R-6467V . This voucher can be printed through the Online Payment Voucher application .	You can mail a check with Form R-6466V . This voucher can be printed through the Online Payment Voucher application .
Electronic payment through LaTAP in your account	Available if you have a LaTAP account.	This option is not available for this tax.	Available if you have a LaTAP account.
Electronic payment through LDR Online Extension Payment outside an account	Go to the Online Tax Extension Payment page, select the tax type, and follow the prompts. You must have an LDR account number for this option.

Electronic payment through participating third party software	Available if you have an LDR account number.	Available if you have an LDR account number.	Available if you have an LDR account number.
Payment by debit or credit card through ACI Payments, Inc. You must have an LDR account number for this option.	No login is required, but a fee is charged to make the payment. When using this option, you must select “Income Tax Payment with extension” as the payment type.	No login is required, but a fee is charged to make the payment. When using this option, you must select “Extension Payment” as the payment type where it says Composite Partnership.	No login is required, but a fee is charged to make the payment. When using this option, you must select “Extension Payment” as the payment type where it says Fiduciary tax type.